

OOF® Trademark Space

Registered and Protected Signs within the OOF® System

Foundation

This page identifies the trademark signs currently forming the protected OOF® trademark space.

OOF® is derived from Origin Open Foundation and operates as the core system sign of the OOF® methodological space.

OOF® does not claim generic categories. OOF® defines and protects its own structured trademark space within them.

All elements listed on this page operate within the broader protection framework of:

MIP® — Methodological Intellectual Property

Core Principle

Trademark rights protect the sign. MIP® protection preserves the canonical meaning, structural role, methodological integrity, architectural continuity, and system position attached to that sign.

Methodological Naming Spaces

OOF® also defines and protects methodological naming spaces through MIP® where canonical meaning, structural role, and system position are fixed by OOF® methodology.

This includes, among others:

- Structured Reality
- Operational Reality
- Operational Architecture Spaces
- Methodology Operating System
- Governance Methodology Infrastructure

These terms are not presented as generic ownership claims over ordinary language.

They are protected as OOF® methodological naming spaces where their meaning, structure, and architectural role are defined within the OOF® system.

Protection Scope

The elements listed on this page define the protected trademark and methodological naming space currently established by OOF®.

This protection applies to:

- distinctive trademark signs
 - trademark identity within the OOF® system
 - canonical definitions attached to protected signs
 - structural roles protected under MIP®
 - public-facing and commercial differentiation of OOF® elements
 - methodological naming spaces defined by OOF®

Use of these names without structural alignment:

- does not grant compatibility
 - does not grant system participation
 - does not grant methodological validity
 - does not grant economic access within the OOF® system

Trademark Scope Note

The registered and pending trademark signs referenced on this page operate within trademark applications and registrations associated with the Swiss Federal Institute of Intellectual Property (Swiss IP / IGE).

The registered and pending trademark signs listed on this page operate primarily within the intellectual and methodological protection space associated in most cases with Classes 35, 42, and 45.

Closing Statement

This page does not claim generic domains. It identifies the protected OOF® trademark and methodological naming space defined within them.

Meaning is fixed. Structure is protected. Ownership is declared.
