

Official OOF Brand Identity

A Unified Identity for the OOF Ecosystem

The Official OOF Brand Identity page presents the official visual identities of Origin Open® Foundation (OOF®). Each identity represents a distinct organizational role while maintaining a unified visual language across the entire OOF ecosystem.

These identities have been created to ensure consistency, clarity, recognition, and professional presentation across official publications, governance architectures, methodology systems, standards, registries, intelligence services, research, digital platforms, and future initiatives.

Although each identity serves a different purpose, all official OOF® logos belong to a single brand and collectively represent the mission and long-term vision of Origin Open® Foundation.

Brand Consistency

All official OOF® logos are part of a unified brand identity. While each logo represents a specific organizational role, they share the same visual language, design principles, and professional standards. Together they communicate OOF's commitment to methodology, governance, structured intelligence, operational architecture, and long-term methodological development.

To ensure consistency across all communications, official OOF® logos should always be used in their approved form without modification.

Authorized Use

Official OOF® logos and brand assets are proprietary assets of Origin Open® Foundation and are intended for authorized use in accordance with the official OOF Brand Guidelines.

Any commercial, promotional, organizational, or public use of official OOF® logos or brand assets is not permitted without prior written authorization from Origin Open® Foundation.
