Category: AI and Interpretation

Subcategory: Content Origin Declaration

Module: Voice Identity Module (VIM™)

Type: Declaration Module

Standard: Origin Declaration Standard (ODS™)

Status: Canonical Module

Version: 1.0

Effective Date: 17 March 2026

Canonical Definition

The Voice Identity Module (VIM™) defines how the identity of a voice used in digital content is declared.

The module enables clear recognition of whether a voice belongs to a real person, an authorized identity, an imitation, or is unknown.

Declaration

Only one voice identity code may be used:

- HVI — Human Voice Identity (real person)
 - AVI — Authorized Voice Identity (consent granted)
 - SVI — Sound-alike Voice Imitation
 - UVI — Unknown Voice Identity

Usage

Content Level (required — single code)

One voice identity code must be associated with the content where voice is present.

Examples:

- HVI
- AVI
- SVI
- UVI

Description Level (required)

The declaration must be included in the description or metadata:

Identity Rule

Voice identity must reflect the actual source of the voice.

- real person → HVI
 - authorized use → AVI
 - imitation or synthetic reproduction → SVI
 - unclear or undeclared → UVI

OOF Compatibility

Content using this module may include the statement:

OOF Compatible — ODS™ Standard

A reference link to the official source is required.

Use Case 1 — AI Voice Transparency

Scenario

AI-generated voices are used in content, narration, or automation.

Application

Voice is declared as AVI or SVI depending on authorization.

Result

- Clear distinction between real and synthetic identity
 - Reduced misuse of voice likeness
 - Increased audience trust

Use Case 2 — Public Figure Protection

Scenario

A voice similar to a known individual is used in content.

Application

Voice identity is declared (AVI or SVI).

Result

- Clear disclosure of imitation or authorization
 - Reduced risk of deception
 - Protection of identity rights

Structural Principle

Voice is identity.

Identity must be declared.

Closing Statement

A voice may sound real.

Its identity must be known.
